Restoration of Kolleru Lake

241. SHRI NANDI YELLAIAH: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Andhra Pradesh Government has requested the Central Government to give permission for utilization of Rs. 40 crores from CAMPA funds for restoration of Kolleru Lake Wild Life Sanctuary:

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) the reasons for delay in according permission to the State Government; and

(d) by when this proposal of the State Government is likely to be accepted?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY: (a) to (d) The State Government of Andhra Pradesh had requested the Government of India for releasing the money deposited by the State Government in Ad-hoc CAMPA (Compensatory Afforestation Fund Management and Planning Authority) towards the Net Present Value (NPV) etc. The request of the State Government was submitted in the form of a Project Proposal titled "Vana Sanjeevini" of which Acquatic-Wetlan Eco-System including Kolleru Wildlife Sanctuary is a component.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court of India has not given permission so far to the Ad-hoc CAMPA to disburse the monies to the State Governments.

Marginalization of ethnic Indians in Malaysia

242. SHRI JESUDASU SEELAM:
SHRI GIREESH KUMAR SANGHI:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether facing un-precedent protest against alleged marginalization of ethnic Indians, Malaysian Prime Minister assured the community that he would look into their grievance and address them accordingly;

(b) if so, whether India has also taken up this issue with the Malaysian Government where large number of Indians had to face problems in that country and had to flow to other countries for safety; and

(c) if so, the outcome of the discussion held with the Malaysian Government and the assurance given to Government of India and that Indians in Malaysia could be properly looked?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) Prime Minister Abdullah Ahmad Badawi of Malaysia had a meeting with representatives of several Indian NGOs on 14 December, 2007 to discuss issues affecting the Indian community in Malaysia, particularly its socio-economic standing in the country. Media reports have quoted a spokesman of the Prime Minister's Office as saying that Prime Minister Abdullah Badawi briefed the representatives of the participating NGOs about the steps taken by the Government to uplift the economic and social standing of the Indian community in Malaysia. He also explained the Government's stand on the HINDRAF issue. According to the spokesman of the Malaysian Government, those who attended the meeting pledged to work with the Government for the betterment of the Malaysian Indian community.